

THE BLUE BOOK

DAMIA SECURITY SOLUTIONS

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Company Name: Damia Security Solutions

Issued By: Management

Approved By: Adama Drammeh, CEO & Managing Director

INTRODUCTION

This Employee Handbook outlines the general policies, procedures, and standards of conduct applicable to employees of Damia Security Solutions.

The purpose of this Handbook is to provide guidance on workplace expectations, employee responsibilities, and Company practices in order to promote a professional, disciplined, and productive working environment.

All employees are expected to familiarise themselves with the contents of this Handbook and comply with its provisions as a condition of employment.

This Handbook is issued under the authority of Management and approved by Adama Drammeh, CEO & Managing Director.

SCOPE & APPLICATION

This Handbook applies to all employees of Damia Security Solutions, regardless of position, department, or length of service, unless otherwise stated in an individual contract of employment.

AUTHORITY

The interpretation, application, and enforcement of this Handbook shall rest with Management, acting under the authority of the Chief Executive Officer & Managing Director.

EMPLOYMENT POLICIES & CONDITIONS

APPOINTMENT

- a) Employees shall initially be engaged under a probationary contract upon commencement of employment.
- b) Confirmation of employment and issuance of a fixed-term or long-term contract shall be subject to the successful completion of the probationary period, performance evaluation, and Management approval.

DURATION OF CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

- a) Contracts of employment shall be issued for a specified period only.
- b) Renewal of any contract shall be subject to performance, operational requirements, and Management discretion.
- c) Contract renewals, where applicable, shall be executed in writing prior to the expiration of the existing contract.
- d) Where a contract is not renewed, the employment relationship shall automatically terminate upon expiry of the contract without further obligation on either party.
- e) The renewal of a fixed-term contract, regardless of the duration or number of renewals, shall not create an expectation of permanent or indefinite employment.

Probationary Period

- a) All employees shall be subject to a probationary period of six (6) months from the date of commencement of employment.
- b) The probationary period may be extended once at the discretion of Management based on performance, conduct, or operational requirements.
- c) During probation, either party may terminate employment with shorter notice, in accordance with applicable law.

REPORTING FOR DUTY

- a) Employees are required to report for duty at the Company's designated start time and remain at work until the end of the official working hours, unless otherwise authorised by Management or a designated supervisor.
- b) Employees must be present at the workplace and fully prepared to commence their duties at the start of the workday.
- c) Attendance, punctuality, and adherence to working hours shall be monitored by supervisors or designated representatives of Management.

d) Repeated lateness, early departure, absenteeism, or failure to comply with working hours may result in disciplinary action.

e) Any adjustment to working hours or absence from duty must be approved in advance by Management or a designated supervisor, except in cases of emergency.

WORKING DAYS & HOURS

a) The Company's normal working days are Monday to Friday, and normal working hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., unless otherwise communicated by Management.

b) Employees are expected to report to work on time and remain on duty for the full duration of assigned working hours.

c) Employees may be required to work up to six (6) days per week. Employees shall be entitled to at least one (1) rest day per week."

d) Due to the nature of the Company's operations, certain roles may require extended hours, fieldwork, or work outside normal office hours.

e) Any variation to working days or hours shall be determined by Management or a designated supervisor based on operational needs.

SALARIES / WAGES & BENEFITS

a) Employees shall be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of their individual contracts of employment.

b) Salaries and wages shall be paid monthly by bank transfer or any other method determined by the Company. Employees are responsible for providing valid and accurate payment details.

c) Salary payment is conditional upon attendance, performance of assigned duties, and compliance with Company policies and working hours.

d) The Company reserves the right to make lawful deductions from an employee's salary, including but not limited to statutory deductions, deductions for absences, lateness, or damage, loss, or misuse of Company property where applicable.

e) Any benefits provided by the Company are discretionary unless expressly stated in writing and do not form part of an employee's contractual entitlement unless specifically included in the employment contract.

f) Any queries regarding salary or wages should be directed to Management or a designated Company representative.

OVERTIME

a) Overtime work may be required from time to time based on operational needs and shall only be performed when authorised by Management or a designated supervisor.

b) Employees are expected to be reasonably available for authorised overtime when business needs require, subject to operational requirements.

- c) Unauthorised overtime shall not be recognised or compensated.
- d) Where overtime is authorised, compensation shall be determined by the Company and may be provided either in the form of time off in lieu or monetary payment, at Management's discretion.
- e) Overtime is not guaranteed and shall not be considered a regular or permanent condition of employment.

COMMUNICATIONS

- a) Employees are encouraged to communicate work-related matters through their immediate supervisor or designated Company representative in the first instance.
- b) Matters of a personal or sensitive nature may be raised with Management or a designated representative and shall be handled in a professional and confidential manner, where appropriate.
- c) Management may determine the appropriate level of escalation and involvement based on the nature of the issue raised.
- d) Confidentiality shall be respected to the extent reasonably possible; however, the Company reserves the right to disclose information where required for operational, disciplinary, or legal purposes.

PERSONAL TELEPHONE CALLS

- a) Company telephones and communication systems are provided primarily for official business purposes.
- b) Limited personal use of mobile phones may be permitted during working hours, provided it does not interfere with job performance, productivity, or professional conduct.
- c) Excessive or inappropriate use of personal mobile phones during working hours may result in disciplinary action.
- d) The Company shall not be responsible for the loss, damage, or theft of employees' personal mobile phones or devices on Company premises.

COURTESY

- a) Employees are expected to conduct themselves in a professional, respectful, and courteous manner towards clients, colleagues, supervisors, and Management at all times.
- b) Abusive language, harassment, intimidation, discrimination, or any form of disrespectful behaviour shall not be tolerated.
- c) Employees are expected to communicate in a calm, respectful, and professional manner during the performance of their duties.
- d) Any conduct that undermines a respectful working environment may result in disciplinary action.

MISCONDUCT

a) Employees are expected to maintain high standards of conduct, professionalism, discipline, and integrity at all times while on duty or representing the Company.

b) Misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

i. Insubordination or refusal to carry out lawful and reasonable instructions

ii. Verbal abuse, threats, or physical altercations

iii. Disorderly or disruptive behaviour in the workplace

iv. Smoking or consumption of alcohol or illegal substances while on duty or on Company premises

v. Removal, misuse, or unauthorised use of Company property, equipment, data, or materials vi. Damage to Company property through negligence or wilful conduct

vii. Breach of Company policies, rules, or procedures

c) No Company property may be removed from the premises or used for personal purposes without prior authorisation from Management or a designated supervisor.

d) Any act of misconduct may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's disciplinary procedures.

BUYING & SELLING

a) Employees are not permitted to buy, sell, trade, promote, advertise, or solicit any goods or services for personal purposes on Company premises or during working hours without prior written approval from Management.

b) This includes, but is not limited to, the sale or promotion of personal items, third-party products, or private services.

c) Any violation of this provision may result in disciplinary action.

UNIFORMS

a) The Company does not require employees to wear uniforms. Employees are expected to dress in a professional and appropriate manner suitable to their role and work environment.

b) The Company reserves the right to introduce uniforms, branded attire, or promotional materials for specific roles, campaigns, or operational needs at any time.

c) Where uniforms or branded materials are issued, employees are required to wear them as directed and maintain them in good condition while on duty.

d) Any loss, damage, or misuse of issued uniforms or branded materials due to negligence or wilful conduct may result in disciplinary action or reasonable recovery of costs.

PROMOTIONS

- a) Opportunities for promotion or advancement may arise from time to time based on the operational needs and growth of the Company.
- b) Promotions are not automatic and are based on performance, skills, conduct, experience, and the business requirements of the Company.
- c) Where appropriate, vacant positions may be communicated internally, and eligible employees may express interest in writing or through the process determined by Management.
- d) The Company reserves the right to appoint an internal or external candidate to any position, where Management determines that no suitable internal candidate is available or where external recruitment is deemed necessary.
- e) All promotion decisions shall be made at the discretion of Management and are final.

ANNUAL LEAVE

- a) Employees shall be entitled to annual leave in accordance with the Company's leave structure, subject to completion of the required period of service and Management approval.
- b) Employees shall be eligible to apply for annual leave after completing twelve (12) months of continuous service from the date of employment, including any period of probation.
- c) Annual leave must be requested in advance and approved by Management or a designated supervisor. Approval of leave is subject to operational requirements.
- d) Where two or more employees request annual leave for the same period, priority shall be given based on operational needs and the order in which requests are submitted.
- e) Annual leave must be taken within the year it accrues.

Carry-forward of leave is not automatic and may only be approved by Management. Untaken leave shall not be converted to cash except upon termination, in accordance with the law..

f) The annual leave entitlement is as follows:

- Employees with 1 to 3 years of service: 14 working days
- Employees with 3 to 7 years of service: 21 working days
- Employees with 7 years and above of service: 30 working days

g) Employees engaged on a six (6) month fixed-term contract shall be entitled to seven (7) working days of paid annual leave.

SICK LEAVE

- a) In the event of illness, an employee must notify their immediate supervisor or Management as soon as reasonably possible, and preferably before the start of the workday.
- b) Sick leave shall only be recognised where supported by a valid medical certificate or note issued by a qualified and recognised medical practitioner.

- c) Sick leave shall be granted in accordance with the Labour Act. Any sick leave beyond statutory entitlement shall be unpaid unless otherwise approved by Management..
- d) The Company reserves the right to verify the authenticity of any medical documentation submitted.
- e) Absence from work for more than three (3) consecutive working days without proper notification or valid medical justification may be treated as unauthorised absenteeism and may result in disciplinary action.
- f) Prolonged or repeated absence due to illness that materially affects an employee's ability to perform their duties may result in a review of the employment relationship, including termination, based on operational requirements.
- g) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the Company from complying with any minimum statutory sick leave obligations where required by law.

MATERNITY LEAVE

- a) A female employee shall be entitled to maternity leave in accordance with applicable law.
 - b) Female employees are entitled to twelve (12) weeks maternity leave, of which six (6) weeks shall be paid in accordance with the Labour Act.
- Any additional maternity leave beyond the statutory paid period shall be unpaid.
- c) The Company does not provide salary, allowances, or benefits during maternity leave.
 - d) An employee returning from maternity leave shall resume employment in her position or an equivalent role, subject to operational requirements.
 - e) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Company from applying its performance management, disciplinary, or termination policies in accordance with Company rules and operational needs.
 - f) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as a guarantee of continued employment beyond the terms of the employee's contract.

USE OF OFFICE FACILITIES

- a) Company premises, equipment, systems, and facilities are provided strictly for official business purposes.
- b) Employees may only access Company premises during official working hours, unless expressly authorised by Management or a designated supervisor.
- c) Use of Company equipment, systems, or facilities for personal purposes without authorisation is prohibited.
- d) Employees must not allow unauthorised persons access to Company premises, systems, or equipment.
- e) Any misuse of Company facilities, equipment, or systems may result in disciplinary action.

DOCUMENTATION OF PERFORMANCE

- a) The Company may document employee performance, conduct, attendance, and behavior for the purpose of evaluation, development, and decision-making. Documentation may be positive or negative.
- b) Performance documentation may be used during performance reviews, probation assessments, contract renewals, disciplinary processes, or termination decisions.
- c) Where appropriate, employees may be informed of documented matters and may be required to acknowledge receipt of such documentation.
- d) Documentation shall be maintained by Management or a designated Company representative and may be placed in the employee's file.
- e) The absence of documentation in any particular instance shall not prevent the Company from taking appropriate action where circumstances warrant.
- f) Letters of recommendation or reference shall only be issued with the approval of Management.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- a) The Company may take disciplinary action where an employee breaches Company rules, policies, or standards of conduct, or where performance or behavior falls below acceptable standards.
- b) Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to, verbal warnings, written warnings, suspension, or termination of employment, depending on the nature and seriousness of the matter.
- c) The Company may, where appropriate, apply progressive disciplinary measures; however, the Company is not obligated to follow a particular sequence of disciplinary steps in all cases.
- d) In cases of serious misconduct or where circumstances warrant, the Company reserves the right to take immediate disciplinary action, including suspension or termination.
- e) Disciplinary decisions shall be made by Management or a designated Company representative following consideration of the facts and circumstances of each case.
- f) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Company from taking appropriate action in accordance with operational requirements or applicable law.

OFFENCES THAT MAY LEAD TO DISMISSAL

- a) The following acts, whether committed on or off Company premises while on duty or representing the Company, may result in summary dismissal, subject to Management's assessment of the circumstances:
 - i. Repeated misconduct following prior warnings or documented incidents

- ii. Physical assault, violence, or threats against colleagues, clients, or any other person
 - iii. Reporting for duty under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or any substance that impairs performance or judgment
 - iv. Possession of weapons or dangerous objects on Company premises without authorisation
 - v. Theft, fraud, dishonesty, misappropriation, or unauthorised use of Company funds, property, data, or resources
 - vi. Serious breach of Company policies, confidentiality obligations, or security procedures
 - vii. Wilful damage to Company property or equipment
 - viii. Conduct that brings the Company into serious disrepute or materially harms its operations or reputation
- b) The above list is not exhaustive, and the Company reserves the right to dismiss an employee for any act of serious misconduct that undermines trust, safety, or operational integrity.
- c) Dismissal decisions shall be made by Management following consideration of the facts, available evidence, and the seriousness of the offence.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- a) Employees who believe they have been treated unfairly or have a workplace concern are encouraged to raise the matter promptly and in good faith through the Company's internal grievance procedure.
- b) In the first instance, the employee should raise the concern with their immediate supervisor or designated Company representative.
- c) If the matter is not resolved at that level, the employee may escalate the grievance to Management for further review.
- d) The Company shall review grievances in a reasonable and fair manner and may conduct such inquiries as it considers appropriate based on the nature of the issue.
- e) While the Company will endeavour to handle grievances confidentially, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed where disclosure is necessary for investigation, operational, or legal reasons.
- f) Employees are encouraged to exhaust internal grievance procedures before seeking external remedies.

PROVIDENT FUND OF S.S.H.F.C.

- a) The Company shall make statutory contributions to the Social Security and Housing Finance Corporation (S.S.H.F.C.) in respect of eligible employees, in accordance with applicable law.

b) Employee contributions, where applicable, shall be deducted from salary and remitted to S.S.H.F.C. as required.

c) Employees are responsible for providing accurate information and documentation necessary for registration and compliance with S.S.H.F.C. requirements.

d) The Company shall not be responsible for delays or issues arising from the provision of incorrect or incomplete information by an employee.

I.C.F.

a) The Company shall comply with its statutory obligations relating to the Injury Compensation Fund (I.C.F.) in accordance with applicable law.

b) Any workplace injury or accident must be reported immediately, and in any case within 24 hours, to Management or a designated supervisor.

c) The Company reserves the right to investigate the circumstances of any reported injury before taking further action.

d) Injuries arising from negligence, misconduct, unauthorised activities, or outside assigned duties shall not be recognised as workplace injuries for Company purposes.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

a) The Company recognises official public holidays as declared by the Government of The Gambia.

b) Due to operational requirements, not all employees may be granted time off on public holidays. Employees required to work on a public holiday shall be informed in advance where reasonably possible.

c) Where an employee is not required to work on a public holiday, such day shall be treated as a normal paid working day.

d) Where an employee is required to work on a public holiday, any compensation, time off, or alternative arrangement shall be determined by Management at its discretion, in accordance with operational needs.

e) Public holidays may not be accumulated, carried forward, or substituted unless expressly approved by Management.

CONFIDENTIALITY & DATA PROTECTION

a) Employees shall maintain strict confidentiality over all Company information, client data, operational details, systems, processes, and records accessed during the course of employment.

b) Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, client details, vehicle data, tracking information, system credentials, pricing, internal reports, and business strategies.

- c) Employees shall not disclose, share, copy, record, or use confidential information for personal gain or for the benefit of any third party, whether during or after employment.
- d) Breach of confidentiality may result in disciplinary action, including summary dismissal, and may expose the employee to legal action.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST & COMPETING ACTIVITIES

- a) Employees shall not engage in any activity that creates a conflict between personal interests and the interests of the Company.
- b) Employees shall not, during employment, work for, represent, assist, or establish any business that competes directly or indirectly with the Company.
- c) Employees shall not use Company contacts, clients, or information for personal business or third-party benefit.
- d) Any conflict of interest must be disclosed immediately to Management. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action or dismissal.

USE OF COMPANY SYSTEMS, EMAILS & TECHNOLOGY

- a) Company systems, platforms, applications, tracking systems, dashboards, email accounts, devices, and communication channels provided by the Company are issued strictly for official business purposes.
- b) Any account, login, email address, or system access created or provided by the Company remains the sole property of the Company at all times.
- c) Employees shall not share login credentials, passwords, access rights, or system information with any unauthorised person.
- d) The Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to monitor, restrict, suspend, or revoke access to any Company system, email account, or platform at any time, with or without prior notice.
- e) Upon termination of employment for any reason, all access to Company systems, tracking platforms, dashboards, email accounts, and communication tools shall be immediately revoked. Any attempt to access or use Company systems after termination shall be treated as serious misconduct and may result in legal action.

COMPANY PROPERTY & EXIT HANDOVER

- a) All Company property, including but not limited to equipment, devices, SIM cards, documents, keys and access credentials, remains the property of the Company.

- b) Upon termination of employment for any reason, employees must immediately return all Company property and complete a formal handover as directed by Management.
- c) Final salary payments or clearance may be withheld until all Company property is returned and access credentials are surrendered.

SOCIAL MEDIA, PUBLIC STATEMENTS & REPRESENTATION

- a) Employees shall not make public statements, social media posts, recordings, publications, or representations on behalf of the Company without prior written authorisation from Management.
- b) Employees shall not post, share, discuss, or disclose Company information, internal matters, client details, operational activities, or business affairs on social media, messaging platforms, or any public forum.
- c) The obligations contained in this section shall continue to apply after the termination of employment, regardless of the reason for termination.
- d) Any public communication, commentary, or publication that damages the Company's reputation, misrepresents its operations, or discloses internal matters may result in disciplinary action, legal action, or both.

TERMINATION, NOTICE & FINAL PAY

- a) Employment may be terminated in accordance with the terms of the employment contract or Company policy.
- b) Notice periods, where applicable, shall be as stated in the employment contract.
- c) The Company reserves the right to terminate employment without notice in cases of serious misconduct.
- d) Final salary payments shall be subject to completion of handover, return of Company property, and clearance of any outstanding obligations.

CONCLUSION, INTERPRETATION & AUTHORITY

- a) This Employee Handbook sets out the general policies, procedures, and standards of conduct applicable to employees of the Company. It is intended to provide guidance and clarity in the workplace.
- b) The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, suspend, or withdraw any part of this Handbook at any time, with or without prior notice, in line with operational requirements and applicable law.

- c) In the event of any conflict between this Handbook and an individual contract of employment, the terms of the employment contract shall prevail.
- d) Management shall have the final authority in the interpretation, application, and enforcement of this Handbook.
- e) Failure by the Company to enforce any provision of this Handbook at any time shall not be construed as a waiver of the Company's right to enforce such provision at a later date.
- f) All employees are expected to familiarise themselves with the contents of this Handbook and comply fully with its provisions as a condition of employment.
- g) The obligations relating to confidentiality, data protection, Company systems, and public representation shall survive the termination of employment.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Company's Employee Handbook and that I have read and understood its contents.

I understand that this Handbook contains general policies and guidelines and does not constitute a contract of employment.

I agree to comply with the policies and procedures contained in this Handbook as a condition of my employment.

I further acknowledge that the Company reserves the right to amend or modify the Handbook at any time.

Employee Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____